

Achievements in 2016

Improvement of Working Conditions

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG received a diploma in the "Improvement of Working Conditions" Contest. The diploma was granted for the System for continuous monitoring of sulphur hazard. The contest was organized by the Ministry of Family, Labour and Social Policy and The Polish Federation of Engineering Associations (FSNT-NOT) in cooperation with many institutions engaged in matters related to occupational work and safety.

The authors of the system are:

Representatives of KGHM Polska Miedź S.A ("Polkowice-Sieroszowice"): Marcin Danis, Sebastian Gola, Krzysztof Soroko.

Representatives of the Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG: Marcin Małachowski, Dariusz Felka.

Representative of the Sevitel company: Marek Bereza.

Warsaw, 9th of December 2016.

Innovation Pearl Diploma

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG was awarded a "Progress – Innovation Pearl" award in the "Research institute" category granted by the contest organizers: "Polish Market" journal and the Main Council of Research Institutes.

Warsaw, 28th of October 2016.

Certificate of an innovation centre providing pro-innovative services

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG has been granted accreditation of an innovation centre providing pro-innovative services by the Ministry of Economic Development.

Warsaw, 23rd of June 2016

Gold Medal at International Fairs of Economic and Scientific Innovations INTARG 2016

The e-See Assist company and the Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG won Gold Medal for the jointly developed solution: Mobile printed text reader at the International Exhibition of Economic and Scientific Innovations INTARG 2016.

Katowice, June 15, 2016

Silver Medal of at International Fairs of Economic and Scientific Innovations INTARG 2016

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG won Silver Medal for the solution OpenArt - "Modern Art for everyone" at International Fairs of Economic and Scientific Innovations INTARG

Katowice, June 15, 2016

Nomination for the Polish Prize of Intelligent Development

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG was nominated for the Polish Prize of Intelligent Development.

The Prize of Polish Intelligent Development is a nationwide award appreciating the most innovative projects, developed within the framework of EU and national programs, by the Polish institutions and companies involved in research and development activities. The second group of subjects are local governments, their subordinate companies and private and public companies which, through their innovative solutions and investments, contribute to the sustainable development of Poland.

Tychy, May 30, 2016

The Brown statuette

The Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG was awarded with "brown statuette" of Solid Company.

The Brown statuette granted to companies that for the seventh consecutive year successfully accomplished verification by experts of the Business-Consumer Program "Solid Company".

5th of February 2016, Warsaw

Solid Company 2015

5th of February 2016, Warsaw